

Lead the way with the right skills

Apprenticeship Standards

The next 10 years will see significant changes in the world of work, including greater use of automation and IT.

The Industrial Strategy Council estimates that an additional seven million people – 20% of the workforce – will be significantly under-skilled for their jobs by 2030.

That will include severe shortages in management and leadership, communication and negotiation, and critical thinking and decision-making.

Our EPA and on-programme offer provide a one-stop shop for the Leadership and Management sector. Joseph Ballantine, Industry Manager for ILM said:

“Last year, we qualified seven times more apprentices than any other management organisation; our tools, processes and systems create a long-lasting, positive impact that helps apprentices pass the end-point assessment first time.”
