Who is this qualification for?
The Level 4 Award in Leadership is aimed at aspiring middle managers seeking to develop their leadership skills to get better results from their teams and prepare themselves to take on more responsibility. It is designed to help individuals have a better understanding of themselves as leaders, and develop skills to plan and lead a complex team activity.

Benefits for individuals
- Understand yourself as a leader
- Use feedback and self-review to enhance your leadership skills
- Learn solid techniques for planning and implementing complex pieces of work
- Put these skills into practice in your workplace
- Raise your profile, get results and get a nationally recognised qualification.

Benefits for employers
- Short, concise qualification focused on workplace-based activity
- Give managers the tools to manage their own professional development
- Managers with the self-awareness to lead and the practical skills to deliver results in your organisation.

This qualification comprises two mandatory units. The first focuses on different leadership styles, the role of trust and respect in effective leadership, and evaluating and improving the learner’s own leadership capability. The second unit covers techniques for planning – risk assessment, operational constraints and resource use, communicating clearly, making smart decisions about allocating work and delegating responsibility, and producing a development plan to improve an individual’s planning and leadership skills, using feedback and self-assessment.

Progression
This qualification will provide progression opportunities to other qualifications such as:
