ILM Level 5
Certificate and Diploma in Social Enterprise Support

Who are these qualifications for?
The Level 5 Certificate and Diploma in Social Enterprise Support are specifically designed for business advisers, consultants and managers working in the social enterprise sector. They aim to help learners benchmark their knowledge, build understanding of current thinking, and improve their own practice.

Benefits for individuals
- Expert understanding of social enterprise and tools for professional development
- Develop a comprehensive understanding of the principles, purpose and practice of social enterprise
- Assess your own work practices and use performance monitoring techniques to improve them
- Tools, knowledge and strategies to advise on business development and sustainability for social enterprises
- Get a nationally recognised qualification to accredit your experience.

The Certificate comprises two mandatory units, ‘Understanding social enterprise’ and ‘Personal professional development’. Then, learners can choose one from three optional units focusing on developing, promoting or sustaining social enterprise.

At Diploma level, all five units are mandatory. They provide a comprehensive range of skills, knowledge and understanding of social enterprise needed by advisors, consultants or managers working in this sector.

Progression
These qualifications will provide progression opportunities to other qualifications such as:
- ILM Level 5 Award, Certificate or Diploma in Management
- ILM Level 5 Award or Certificate in Leadership.
